6. CMRB News

First Annual General Meeting of the Centre for Migration, Refugees and Belonging, (CMRB).

The first annual general meeting of the Centre for Research on Migration, Refugees and Belonging (CMRB) will take place at UEL on Thursday 14th October in room BS.3.04 (above the library) from 2pm to review the past year and to plan the next one.

We will also be launching our 2009/10 Annual Review (cover image attached). If you had not yet become associated with CMRB but are interested in our activities, please feel free to come and join us.

After the general discussion and a coffee/tea/biscuits break we'll have a seminar presentation by CMRB Visiting Fellow Prof. Carol Bohmer, entitled :

What's happening in political asylum in 2010?

Competing discourses of protection and control are predominant in present day asylum rhetoric. Satisfying these conflicting goals is impossible; states therefore must find a way to appear to meet both of these goals. How do they do it? This paper will attempt to answer that question and illustrate the sometimes absurd effects of this process, using the cases of the US and the UK which have been the focus of my research.
