The information that you provide here will not be used to assess your academic suitability for the programme but to ensure that, if you are made an offer to study at UEL, we are aware that you may need extra support. At the point of offer, your details will be passed to the Disability and Dyslexia Advice Centre who will contact you regarding any support needs that you may have and to ensure that you have access to any additional funding for which you are eligible or equipment/software that you may require from an early point in your studies. 11. Criminal Conviction

We need to know about criminal convictions in two situations:

1. In circumstances where that information may help us to reduce the risk of harm or injury to our students and staff:

A relevant criminal conviction in this context is one for offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, or for offences that concern commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and do not have to be revealed

If you do have a relevant criminal conviction that is not spent you must answer yes to this question

Your application will still be considered if you answer yes and we will send you our decision on your academic suitability for the programme. If an offer for the programme is made, we will then request further details of the offence in order to assess your suitability to register with the University. Please note that the declaration of a criminal conviction is not in itself a bar to registration. As an inclusive university, fair consideration will be given in tandem with the nature of the offence, the time of conviction and if any sentence has been spent.

If you are convicted of a relevant criminal offence after you have made your application, you must tell us and we may then ask you for further details.

2. Where it is a consideration because of the nature of the programme of study chosen:

Programmes involving work with children or vulnerable adults, or in teaching, health, social work or veterinary subjects are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that any criminal convictions including sentences and cautions (including verbal cautions), reprimands, final warnings and bind-over orders, must be declared and are never spent for this purpose

If you are applying for such a programme, we will require an enhanced disclosure certificate from Criminal Records Bureau or its equivalent if you are applying from outside the UK. The university will assess the information disclosed and determine whether or not it is relevant. The appropriate forms and instructions will be sent to you should you be offered a place on the programme.

If you wish to check whether your chosen programme requires a criminal records check or you would like confidential advice regarding this section, please call the Applicant Checks Officer on +44 (0) 20 8223 6271. If you are convicted of any criminal offence after you have made your application for one of these programmes you must tell us and we may then ask you for further details.

* Do you have a relevant criminal conviction ?

YES

NO

We expect you to submit a complete and comprehensive application at the point of first submission. This will enable us to assess properly your suitability for the programme. It is therefore in your best interests to provide us with accurate information and to ensure that you are fully informed about the programme you are applying for and the commitments you would be making if you become a student here. By signing / electronically submitting your application you are confirming that the information provided on this form is complete and correct. Omissions or false statements may lead to disciplinary action for students resulting in expulsion from the University.

You will be asked to supply proof of the information submitted, or to otherwise confirm the details of this application, in person, at a later date. This will include providing proof of identity.

* Signature / Date
