Work or Study Placements

Our students that choose to study on the BA (Hons) Fashion Marketing with Sandwich Year degree course have the opportunity, (between levels 5 and 6), to take a full year industry placement schedule. They gain first-hand experience of the industry and develop their understanding of professional practice. The course has an extensive and varied list of contacts that we use to support our student's work placement opportunities. Our contacts cover a varied amount of roles such as:

Administrator | Buyer | Merchandiser | Trend Forecaster | Fashion Journalist | Assistant merchandiser | Fashion Promoter | Campaign Manager | PR Manager

The Placement year is appropriately facilitated by both a module leader and the student themselves, with regards to the sourcing of companies relevant to the student's interests and aspirations. Students are bound by a code of conduct throughout the entire year as they represent the university in an external environment. Please see the link below for further information:
<https://www.uel.ac.uk/Discover/Governance/Policies-Regulations-Corporate-documents/Student-Policies/Policy-on-Work-Based-Learning-and-Placement-Management>

Students are advised to consider out of term activity within work experience placements. Our staff team offer assistance constantly, but not as formal curriculum tutorials; more as a friendly source of advice and guidance. For example, being available to work with companies as we approach London Fashion week can be extremely exciting for our students, in level 4 especially as it allows them to gain insight in to fashion as an industry and start to gauge what type of company they might like to apply to when taking part within the industry placement sandwich scheme if they have chosen this option.

Below is a vast list of Industry Placements undertaken by students who are studying on the Ba (Hons) Fashion Marketing with Sandwich Year course. We ensure that our range of companies that we work with is extremely broad in order to cater for a variety of interests.

You could have the opportunity to work for:
