Additional detail about the Course module structure:

1. The Course has a common Level 4 which it shares with the BSc Business Management and the BSc Marketing to allow students flexibility between Courses.
2. The Level 4 modules develop key skills to enable students to tackle Levels 5 and 6 with confidence and build literacy, numeracy and critical thinking skills early in the degree Course. A key module at Level 4 is Mental Wealth.
3. The Course is developed at Level 5 around core modules. Students can also select from 20 credit options at Level 5 in the form of Learning and Development or HRM Work-based Reflective Practice or International HRM.
4. At Level 6, students will study a range of relevant modules relevant to working in HR, including Employee engagement and Employment Relations, HRIS (Human Resource Information Systems), Strategic HRM and Leadership in Organisations, and Business Ethics and Business Research.
5. The core modules, combined with option modules at Levels 4, 5 and 6 provide students with the opportunity to get a broad understanding of topics that relate to Human resource management. The core module of Applied HR Project at Level 6 will provide students with a relevant experience and will prepare students for the world of professional human resource management related work opportunities.

A core module for a Course is a module which a student must have passed (i.e. been awarded credit) in order to achieve the relevant named award. An optional module for a Course is a module selected from a range of modules available on the Course.

The overall credit-rating of this Course is 360 credits. If for some reason you are unable to achieve this credit you may be entitled to an intermediate award, the level of the award will depend on the amount of credit you have accumulated. You can read the University Student Policies and Regulations on the UEL website.

Course Specific Regulations

The Course has professional accreditation from CIPD. The modules on the UEL programme have been mapped against those offered directly by the Chartered Institute of Management so upon graduation students can apply for CIPD intermediate qualifications.

Typical Duration

It is possible to move from full-time to part-time study and vice-versa to accommodate any external factors such as financial constraints or domestic commitments. Many of our students make use of this flexibility and this may impact on the overall duration of their study period.

Undergraduate Courses

The expected duration of this Course is three years full-time or six years part-time.

A student cannot normally continue study on a Course after four years of study in full time mode unless exceptional circumstances apply, and extenuation has been granted. The limit for completion of a Course in part time mode is eight years from first enrolment.

Further Information

More information about this Course is available from:

- The UEL web site (www.uel.ac.uk)
- The Course handbook
- Module study guides
- UEL Manual of General Regulations (available on the UEL website)
- UEL Quality Manual (available on the UEL website)
