Course Structure

All courses are credit-rated to help you to understand the amount and level of study that is needed.

One credit is equal to 10 hours of directed study time (this includes everything you do e.g. lecture, seminar and private study).

Credits are assigned to one of 5 levels:

3 Equivalent in standard to GCE 'A' level and is intended to prepare students for year one of an undergraduate degree course.
4 Equivalent in standard to the first year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.
5 Equivalent in standard to the second year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.
6 Equivalent in standard to the third year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.
7 Equivalent in standard to a Masters degree.

Courses are made up of modules that are each credit weighted.

Please note: Optional modules might not run every year, the course team will decide on an annual basis which options will be running, based on student demand and academic factors, in order to create the best learning experience.

Additional detail about the course module structure:
- Advertising with Foundation, Film with Foundation, Media and Communications and Media Production with Foundation students will take the Ways of Seeing module,
- Computer Games Design and Development students will take the Analogue games module,
- Creative and Professional Writing with Foundation students will take Creative writing portfolio and
- Journalism, Fashion Journalism, Music Journalism and Sports Journalism students will take the Journalism Portfolio module.

A core module for a course is a module which a student must have passed (i.e. been awarded credit) in order to achieve the relevant named award. An optional module for a course is a module selected from a range of modules available on the course.

The overall credit-rating of this course is 120 credits. If for some reason you are unable to achieve this credit you may be entitled to an intermediate award, the level of the award will depend on the amount of credit you have accumulated. You can read the University Student Policies and Regulations on the UEL website.

Typical Duration

It is possible to move from full-time to part-time study and vice-versa to accommodate any external factors such as financial constraints or domestic commitments. Many of our students make use of this flexibility and this may impact on the overall duration of their study period.

UG
The expected duration of this course is 4 years full-time or 8 years part-time.

A student cannot normally continue study on a course after 4 years of study in full time mode unless exceptional circumstances apply and extenuation has been granted. The limit for completion of a course in part time mode is 7 years (8 for foundation year) from first enrolment.

The time limit for completion of a course is six years after first enrolment on the course.

Further Information
