

MSc in Oil and Gas Management

Course Aim and Title	MSc in Oil and Gas Management
Intermediate Awards Available	PG Cert, PG Dip
Teaching Institution(s)	UEL on Campus
Alternative Teaching Institutions (for local arrangements see final section of this specification)
UEL Academic School	RDSBL
UCAS Code
Professional Body Accreditation
Relevant QAA Benchmark Statements	Business and Management (2015)
Additional Versions of this Course
Date Specification Last Updated	April 2019

Course Aims and Learning Outcomes

This course is designed to give you the opportunity to:

- Develop a critical awareness of strategies, policies and processes for sustainable management of oil and gas
- Gain an in-depth understanding of past and present challenges faced by the oil and gas industry
- Conceptualize and critically apprise the oil and gas sector's changing nature and provide applied, industry-relevant solutions

What you will learn:

Knowledge

- Concepts and issues underpinning the study of oil and gas management
- Role of the oil and gas sector in economic development in the era of environmental protection
- Current developments within the sector and beyond to understand ways in which technology, risk, and sustainability can be managed

Thinking skills

- A critical awareness of the merits and weaknesses of conceptual and empirical issues as outlined in the course's core modules

- Ability to use information and knowledge effectively to analyze studied material, understand abstract and subject-specific knowledge and share it
- To understand of how to recognize and address ethical dilemmas surrounding corporate social responsibility, sustainability and transition in the oil and gas sector

Subject-Based Practical skills

- Research skills to conduct independent, applied business report
- Ability to condense information and provide it a form of consultancy projects, industry reports that are business-facing and industry-relevant
- Research complex ideas and arguments using a range of academic, industry and media sources

Skills for life and work (general skills)

- To recognize and address ethical dilemmas
- To communicate effectively and being able to communicate complex ideas and arguments

Learning and Teaching

Knowledge is developed through:

- Guided reading
- Online discussions and activities

Thinking skills are developed through:

- Reflective activities and feedback
- Case studies

Practical skills are developed through:

- Applied research
- Workshops and industry guest lectures

Skills for life and work (general skills) are developed through:

- Planning activities with feedback
- Project-based activities

Assessment

Knowledge is assessed by

- Coursework
- Presentation

Thinking skills are assessed by

- Coursework

Practical skills are assessed by

- Practical reports
- Individual portfolio

Skills for life and work (general skills) are assessed by

- Project work
- Group work

Students with disabilities and/or particular learning needs should discuss assessments with the Course Leader to ensure they are able to fully engage with all assessment within the course.

Work or Study Placements

Work / study placements are not envisaged.

Course Structure

All courses are credit-rated to help you to understand the amount and level of study that is needed.

One credit is equal to 10 hours of directed study time (this includes everything you do e.g. lecture, seminar and private study).

Credits are assigned to one of 5 levels:

- 3 Equivalent in standard to GCE 'A' level and is intended to prepare students for year one of an undergraduate degree course.
- 4 Equivalent in standard to the first year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.

- 5 Equivalent in standard to the second year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.
- 6 Equivalent in standard to the third year of a full-time undergraduate degree course.
- 7 Equivalent in standard to a Masters degree.

Courses are made up of modules that are each credit weighted.

The module structure of this course:

Level	Module Code	Module Title	Credit Weighting	Core/Option	Available by Distance Learning? Y/N
7	SG7300	Oil and Gas Management	30	Core	N
7	SG7301	Governing International Oil and Gas	30	Core	N
7	SG7005	Innovation, Sustainability and Transition in the Oil and Gas Sector	30	Core	N
7	MK7041	Managing Sustainable Global Value Chains	30	Core	N
7	HR7004	Mental Wealth 4: Mental Wealth and Applied Research	30	Core	N
7	SG7002	Applied Business Project	30	Core	N

Additional details about the course module structure: MSc Oil and Gas Management course consists of a total of 180 credits. The total of 180 credits are broken down into (a) taught part worth 150 credits (b) applied business project worth 30 credits. A core module for a course is a module which a student must have passed (i.e. been awarded credit) in order to achieve the relevant named award. An optional module for a course is a module selected from a range of modules available on the course. The overall credit-rating of the MSc Oil and Gas Management course is 180 credits. If for some reason you are unable to achieve this credit you may be entitled to an intermediate award, the level of the award will depend on the amount of credit you have accumulated. You can read the University Student Policies and Regulations on the UEL website

Course Specific Regulations

N/A

Typical Duration

It is possible to move from full-time to part-time study and vice-versa to accommodate any external factors such as financial constraints or domestic commitments. Many of our students make use of this flexibility and this may impact on the overall duration of their study period.

The duration of this course is one calendar year full-time if enrolment is in September, and two calendar years part-time. For February enrolment, the duration becomes 15 months full time, and 27 months part-time.

The time limit for completion of a course is four years after first enrolment on the course.

Further Information

More information about this course is available from:

- The UEL web site (www.uel.ac.uk)
- The course handbook
- Module study guides
- UEL Manual of General Regulations (available on the UEL website)
- UEL Quality Manual (available on the UEL website)
- School web pages

All UEL courses are subject to thorough course approval procedures before we allow them to commence. We also constantly monitor, review and enhance our courses by listening to student and employer views and the views of external examiners and advisors.

Additional costs:

N/A

Alternative Locations of Delivery

This course does not have professional body accreditation although students are encouraged to make individual applications for accredited status.