References on Mental Health and Wellbeing of Refugees, Asylum Seekers & Migrants

This page provides details of evidence-based research on refugees and migrant populations by national and international mental health organisations, professionals, academic and research bodies with experience and expert knowledge of working with diverse refugees, asylum seekers and migrant populations.

- International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent (2008). Code of Conduct for the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and NGOs in Disaster Relief. Geneva: IFRC www.rcpsych.ac.uk/expertadvice/problemsdisorders/posttraumaticstressdisorder.aspx).

Tribe, R., & Thompson, K. (2009a). Opportunity for development or necessary nuisance? The case for viewing working with interpreters as a bonus in therapeutic work. International Journal of Migration, Health & Social Care, 5, 2, 4 – 12.

NOTE:

The above references have been compiled by Dr Farkhondeh Farsimadan, a chartered counselling psychologist who is an Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society and an HCPC registered Psychologist.